

Ashley grew up in the Birmingham area playing volleyball and basketball at Oak Mountain High School. She played volleyball for BVC for two years and continued her volleyball career at the University of Montevallo for two years. Ashley has coached for BVC for the last six years. She is currently a math teacher at Shades Valley High School and coaches the JV Volleyball team this past season. Last May, Ashley got married to her husband, Aaron. And they lived happily ever after!