

She is in her second year as the assistant at the University of Montevallo. 2010 season she helped take the falcons to the NCAA tournament which they ended the season as one of the top 32 teams in the nation. She was also the Oklahoma Peak Performance Club Volleyball coach for two years where she coached 18's and 14's age group.

Coleman played at Georgia Southern from 2004-07. She remains in the record books for tallying the fourth most digs in a career (1,108). She also posted 858 kills and 60 service aces for her career. In her senior season, she led the Eagles in digs per game (3.28). She helped lead the team to the Southern Conference Quarterfinals three times (2005, 2006, 2007) and the semi-finals in 2004.

She began her coaching career at Oklahoma City University in August 2008 where she assisted the head coach in recruiting, practices, travel. She helped the stars to a 33-8 record in 2008 and a berth in the Sooner Athletic Conference Tournament semi-finals and a 51-28 record two years.

Coleman was responsible for the Oklahoma City defense and passing. She was responsible for fundraising events and she monitored all players' academic progress.

Coleman is a 2008 graduate of Georgia Southern University with a bachelor's degree in health and education. She earned her masters of education in applied behavioral studies in June 2010 from Oklahoma City University.