

Chris Brooks has been an educator & volleyball coach for the last 17 years. He has coached at all levels of the sport of volleyball including middle school, high school, Junior Olympics (USAV) and college. Chris is a 1995 graduate of Clemson University (B.S. degree in Biological Sciences), where he also played volleyball as a middle blocker. He was an assistant volleyball coach at the University of Montevallo and a 2003 graduate with a Master's in Education, general science. Chris has coached at various schools and clubs in the area as well as South Carolina, of which he is native. Chris enjoys working with all age groups and has conducted/participated in numerous skill and team camps all over the southern United States.

Currently, Chris, and his wife, Kim, coach the 12 and under teams for Birmingham Volleyball Club. Chris is also going to stay busy coaching the 15-2 team at BVC this year. Chris has won numerous Regional Championships in both club & power with USAV as both a coach & player. As a player, he also holds two national titles; one in six-man indoor and one in three-man grass triples in addition to two gold medals in the Georgia State Games.

Kim Brooks is from Boca Raton, FL where she played volleyball for Spanish River HS and Florida Gold Coast VBC as a middle blocker. She went on to USC Aiken for volleyball and was All-Conference 4 years, All Region 1 year, jersey retired in 1998, and inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2008. She has been a club director and coach since that time for various clubs in Columbia, SC and Birmingham, AL. She works at Trinity Medical Center and is married to Chris Brooks.